

Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza, known for its "well done" pizza, celebrated its Grand Opening in Coral Springs by honoring Coral Springs Community Chest founder Maureen Berk with a "Well Done Award" on Tuesday, August 28.

Dan Marino, Hall of Fame quarterback and part owner of Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza, was on hand to help company founder Anthony Bruno "pass" ther award to Maureen.

A live auction was held for two Dan Marino-signed footballs, and proceeds from the event benefited Coral Springs Community Chest.

Dan Marino's son, Michael Marino, manned the turntables playing classic favorites that further enhanced the evening's atmosphere.

Dan Marino passes a signed football to eight year old Courtney Sherbal, granddaughter of Maureen Berk.

Coral Springs Chamber of Commerce Office Manager Anne Marie Mastandrea, Chamber of Commerce, President Cindy Brief, Coral Springs Community Chest President Janice Zaitz, Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza (ACFP) Founder Anthony Bruno, ACFP Kitchen Manager Andrew Garavuso, Coral Springs ACFP Store Manager Melinda Siekierksi, Dan Marino, Chamber of Commerce Chairman Mike DiTocco, Chamber member Kimberly Knox, Chamber of Commerce Chair-Elect Sari Rotenberg join to cut the ribbon of the new Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza in Coral Springs.

